A. Responsibilities

VANDERBILT 💱 UNIVERSITY

MEDICAL CENTER

- 1. Each manager and leader must be aware of their individual responsibility to ensure adherence to the VUMC's Equal Opportunity Employment Policy.
- 2. VUMC Human Resources is charged with the overall responsibility of monitoring compliance with VUMC's Equal Opportunity Employment Policy and for coordinating and implementing policies to ensure that VUMC's non-discrimination requirements. Every manager and leader are expected to adhere to and support this policy.
- B. Guidelines

Each VUMC hiring manager has an important role in the employment process that includes remaining up-to-date regarding policies, procedures, and non-discrimination. Records pertaining to employment decisions are complete and accurate in accordance with record-keeping guidelines.

1. Recruitment: Talent Acquisition includes the phrase "Equal Opportunity Employer" in all printed employment advertisements. All regular staff positions are listed with HR Talent Acquisition prior to the formal initiation of recruitment efforts. Media and organizational sources specializing in recruitment and referral of veterans, and individuals with disabilities are provided copies of vacancy announcements as determined practicable and useful by VUMC.

> Talent Acquisition informs all recruiting sources of VUMC's equal employment commitment to recruit and refer all applicants to positions listed.

- 2. Hiring: Staff vacancies are listed and available internally for 5 days before a hiring offer can be made. Decisions to hire individuals are based on specified job-related criteria. To fulfill this obligation, the hiring manager solicits only information which directly relates to an applicant's ability to perform the tasks of the position sought. For more detail, refer to the HR Recruitment, Hiring, and Onboarding Policy.
- 3. Compensation: Managers in consultation with Human Resources make compensation decisions regarding staff on the basis of established pay procedures. Variations in pay may be justified if based on education, experience, merit, or other legitimate documented factors. When a pay-for-performance system is utilized, to the extent possible, performance criteria relate to objective standards and measurements, and is uniformly applied.
- 4. Promotions and Transfers: Human Resources Talent Acquisition assists with promotions and transfers.
- 5. Discharge: Termination decisions are based upon objective criteria. Performance deficiencies and other disciplinary action are administered according to established VUMC policies. See HR - Performance Accountability and Commitment and HR - Progressive Discipline policies. Faculty and House Staff need to refer to their respective manuals on disciplinary processes.

ⁱ The Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2008 (GINA) prohibits discrimination in health coverage and in employment based on genetic information.

ⁱⁱ Sexual orientation refers to a person's self-identification as heterosexual, homosexual, bisexual, asexual, pansexual, or uncertain.

ⁱⁱⁱ Gender identity is generally defined as a person's own sense of identification as male, female, both, or neither as distinguished from actual biological sex, i.e. it is one's psychological sense of self.

^{iv} Gender expression is everything we do that communicates our sense of identification to others.
